TRAVEL INSURANCE

We highly recommend that you protect your expedition investment by purchasing trip cancellation insurance.

Travel insurance provided by mainstream insurance companies generally have very limited cover. We strongly recommend you obtain specialist diving medical and evacuation insurance cover from an insurance provider with experience catering for divers and diving emergencies.

In addition to the specialist diving insurance you should also purchase a traditional travel insurance providing adequate protection against medical expenses while abroad and cancellation/curtailment charges in the event that you, a travelling companion or a close relative, fall ill either before or during the holiday.

Individual Cancellation

If you need to cancel your reservation with us, we will gladly refund the full amount of your deposit up until 90 days from trip departure date less a $100 US cancellation fee. Cancellations within 90 days prior to arrival will forfeit your payments unless you fill the space with another replacement participant. You may also elect to transfer your deposit to another trip up to a maximum of 14 months later from the date of cancellation.

Trip cancellation and interruption insurance is highly recommended. No exceptions can be made for late purchases. Arctic Kingdom will not be responsible for costs related in catch-up or delays.

Arctic Kingdom reserves the right to cancel any trip if registration does not meet minimum participant requirements. If this occurs, Arctic Kingdom may continue to run the trip if all participants agree to an increase in their expedition price. Arctic Kingdom may offer participants on cancelled trips to join another expedition. If no reasonable alternative can be agreed upon, Arctic Kingdom will issue a full refund. Arctic Kingdom makes a best effort to accurately price trips a year in advance, but please note, that due to the nature of operating expeditions in the arctic, from political changes, wilderness, weather and logistical changes trip prices are subject to change and are subject to change at any time.

Baggage

Arctic Kingdom assumes no liability for loss or damage to baggage in transit to and from an Arctic Kingdom expedition or while on an Arctic Kingdom expedition. We recommend purchasing a travel insurance policy which normally includes baggage insurance. Baggage insurance is included as part of the trip cancellation coverage.
